

Incarnation crosses February / March 2002 "Four Corners Magazine" by Carolyn Ford

The Human Design System Continuation of the Series is a blueprint of your genetic code. With Human Design Analysis your genetic code can be deciphered in detail.

This system is a revealed science and is founded upon logic, and logic is substantiated upon the repetition of patterns, something to be experimented with, not a belief system. At the moment of birth we are imprinted with a genetic blueprint that is a unique expression of ourselves and like no other.

Understanding this can be quite liberating and something inside of us can deeply surrender, allowing our true inner essence to emerge. It is never too late to begin to live the life that is here for You. It truly is that simple.

Incarnation Crosses Your Life's Purpose Revealed by Carolyn Ford

With The Human Design System, you are always looking at the mechanics of the Human being. Think about that. The mechanics, this is something very different than we are used to viewing. Usually we are asked to look at our psyches, our souls or our spirits. When I give a reading, it takes a few minutes to help my client adjust to the direction of learning their mechanics, which is pure science. There is nothing psychic or intuitive about this process it is just straight mechanics based on your DNA. There are currently studies being done to validate this system and some aspects of the formula have already been proven. (see website:www. Ravelifesciences.com) for more information.

This means that the understanding of the Human Design System is logical and it must be experimented with to be information that you can know for yourself. Learning your unique authority, type and strategy given in a personal reading and living them brings a clear understanding and knowing of the formulas for each individual over time.

The Human Design System is a series of integrated formulas in each article I reveal another piece of that formula, to be integrated into the whole. In this issue, we will look at Incarnation Crosses.

You were born on a cross, an incarnation cross that is, and it represents your life's purpose- what we are here to accomplish and what forces are driving us, regardless of our philosophies or religions. This allows us to see our movement in the whole and how life is not personal--we are a composite of many things, an integrated aspect of something that is so vast. We are so tightly bound to these crosses that it is hard to see their impact on us.

There are 768 variations of crosses in the wheel. Your incarnation cross is a composite of two calculations one from the position of the Sun and Earth at birth and one from the Sun and Earth positions approximately 3 months before you are born or exactly 88 degrees of the sun before you are born. It's the combination of these two calculations from the Sun / Earth data that gives us the definition of our unique incarnation cross. If you look at the chart of the Dalai Lama you can see his cross, it is formed by the 4 hexagrams in the outer wheel that are highlighted by the arms of the cross. It is made up of four hexagrams of the I Ching the 38, 39, 51 and 57. As you may notice, the Sun and Earth are always opposite each other in the wheel. When both sets of information are highlighted this gives us the clear form of a cross.

The Dalai Lama has the Incarnation cross of Provocation. This cross is a natural at provoking others to help them find the correct spirit. They are natural at provoking "the other" regardless of circumstances, and may end up being provoked themselves. People with the Cross of Provocation are unpredictable and innocent in their provocation; it is just what they carry in their geometry of expression. Think about the Dalai Lama and his obvious life's path, how many millions has he provoked to find their spirit. He has fixed fate with this particular cross and it is clearly illustrated in his life's expression.

Each life is an essential living aspect of the totality and serves a recognizable purpose in the evolution of the whole. This purpose is found in the analysis of one's Incarnation cross.

What is your life's purpose as revealed by your Incarnation Cross?

Examples of Incarnation Crosses:

The Cross of Planning...Concerned with planning things, and finding the details and the depth to substantiate their plans. Their planning is to benefit the community. These people often wake up saying "the plan for the day is..."

The Cross of Contagion...I call this one the cheerleader cross. In my practice, many of my clients have confessed to being cheerleaders after I explain its purpose to them. These people are contagious in their enthusiasm and commitment and their abilities to get others excited about the information they are passing on, whether they know it or not.

The Cross of Explanation...These people have a deep need to explain their selves again and again and again. Repetition actually helps the collective accept the pearls of insight and wisdom these individuals may share. They often struggle with the uniqueness of their mind and are considered either geniuses or freaks.

The Cross of the Vessel of Love...This cross conditions the way we love as a collective totality it carries the four ways we meet and express love in this life. Love and it's meaning is their biggest question. As children, these people need to be fully embraced, as love is all that matters.

The Cross of Dominion...This is about the usurpation of power, the taking of power. They have a mental capacity to take advantage as the mind moves into the survival of the fittest.

The Cross of Revolution...This is the "Robin Hood" cross taking from the rich to give to the poor as a matter of principal. It is about human rights here to protect they are natural warriors.

The Cross of the Sphinx...These people condition and guide the collective direction for humanity. Although they are often lost themselves while influencing the rest of towards direction as a theme.

The Cross of the Alpha...Very powerful leaders who can impact the largest number of beings who are karmatically waiting to be influenced. They are always found in influential positions.

The Cross of Tension...This cross creates a pressure field in the body. Musculature aches, headaches, stress tension etc. This tension has a valuable purpose in moving them through this life it is here to help them grow in many ways. It is essential that they take care of their bodies to continue to release this tension in a healthy manner other wise it creates health problems, conflict and disharmony.

The Cross of Eden...It's through this cross that the innocence of Eden is lost, as people born under it are thrown out of Eden to experience the heaviness of the world of form. Out of Eden they are forced deeply into the experiential way, often through a tragic beginning. They are always yearning to return to this lost sense of Eden and they can be our greatest teachers of what being in form is about. I've often noticed that if you squint your eyes, you might see their wings.

These are just a few examples of the 768 incarnation crosses within these crosses there are numerous variations, through a chart analysis your specific cross and themes related to your individual life's purpose can be revealed. It's the dance of formulas within formulas that makes up the matrix of the Human Being and the new type of species that we are becoming!
